SKW Volleyball - SKW Defend Title in Namibia's Most Prestigious Volleyball Event

Sport Klub Windhoek (SKW) - National Defence Force (NDF) 3 - 0

The SKW Volleyball team defended their title in the Doc Tournament in Walvisbay last weekend. SKW dominated against NDF A in the final, beating them 3:0 in fine style to lift the Men's trophy again. Khomas Nampol beat DTS to win the ladies competition. Last year at the Doc Tournament, SKW had their big break though, winning the tournament against all expectations. Since then SKW has established itself as the team to beat, coming closed second in the National Premier League and winning the National Club Championships in 2007. As a result, SKW also pocketed various awards last year, winning the Team of the year awards of the Namibian Volleyball Federation and the Sport Klub Windhoek. Heiko Diehl, the SKW libero, also received the Player of the year award of the Federation and the Sportsman of the year award of the Sport Klub Windhoek. This year SKW is aiming for a clean sweep on the local Volleyball scene, winning the Doc Tournament, the league and the Club Champs. As current National Club Champions, they will also participate in the Zone 6 Club Championships at the end of the year. With their performance in the Doc Tournament last weekend, they have taken the first step at achieving this goal. In the group matches SKW lost to NDF A, but won all their other games to finish second in the group. In the semi finals and finals SKW then showed their usual big match temperament and beat Khomas Nampol 2:0 and NDF A 3:0 (25:17, 25:16, 25:14) with a showing of great skill, team work and spirit. Khomas Nampol went on to beat Six Stars Volleyball Club for third position.

SKW GYMNASTS TRIUMPH IN JOHANNESBURG

This week, the SKW Rhythmic Gymnasts returned triumphant from the Jozi International Rhythmic Gymnastics Competition. The event was held at Wits University in Johannesburg and was attended by gymnasts from South Africa, Namibia, Germany, Malaysia, Zimbabwe and the Ukraine.

In the Infant Category, Veronica Lepekha won the Bronze Medal for her Free Dance routine and was awarded the Bronze Trophy for achieving third place in the Overall Competition. In the Pre-Junior category Nadia Reichstein won Silver for Rope and Hoop and Bronze Medals for her Ball and Ribbon Routines. She was awarded the Silver Trophy for the second place in the Overall Competition. Michelle Bierbach achieved the 4th place for her Hoop and Ball routines and won Silver for Ribbon and Bronze for her Rope routine. She was awarded the Bronze Trophy for third place in the Overall Competition.

Maïke Brandt followed closely with the 4th place for her Rope and Ribbon routines, Bronze for Hoop and Silver for her Ball routine. The Junior Olympic Overall Competition proved to be one of the toughest of the event, with 26 participants vying for the top 3 places in the first day of competition. Ida Steenkamp finished 6th overall, Aldi Truter finished in the eleventh position and Nicole Bierbach was awarded the Silver Trophy for the Second Place Overall. The Top 8 scorers in each apparatus also qualified to compete in the Apparatus Finals on Day Two of the competition. Aldi Truter finished 8th in the Hoop Finals, while Ida Steenkamp achieved the 7th Place in the Rope and 5th Place in the Ribbon Finals. Nicole Bierbach attained 4th Place in the Ball Finals and was awarded the Silver Medal for the Rope Final. She went on to consolidate her success by winning the Gold Medals for both the Hoop and Ribbon Finals. The SKW Gymnasts and their National Coach, Angela Lepekha, were commended by the International Coaches and Judges for their high standard of gymnastics.
